

The Columbus Region of Ivy Tech Community College is offering a free class this fall to 2009 graduates of high schools in our region or those residents in our region who received a GED during the 2008-09 academic year.

High School Graduates

The free class offer applies to home school graduates and those graduating from the following schools:

- Bethel Holiness Christian School
- Brown County High School
- Brownstown Central High School
- Columbus Christian Academy
- Columbus East High School
- Columbus North High School
- Crothersville High School
- Edinburgh High School
- Franklin Community High School
- Greensburg Community High School
- Hauser High School
- Indian Creek High School
- Jennings County High School
- Medora High School
- North Decatur High School
- Seymour Christian Academy
- Seymour High School
- South Decatur High School
- Trinity Lutheran High School

GED Recipients

GED recipients must reside in the counties of Bartholomew, Brown, Decatur, Jackson, Jennings, and southern Johnson (all Franklin residents and points south including Trafalgar and Edinburgh).

To receive a free class from Ivy Tech - Columbus, students must verify they have graduated from their high school or received a GED from their adult education center.

_____ has graduated/received a GED from _____ Student Name High School/Adult Education Institution

on _____
Official Graduation Date/GED Award Date

Please also verify the type of diploma received by checking one of the following options:

- Certificate of Completion
- Academic Honors
- General Diploma
- Technical Academic Honors
- Core 40
- GED

Signature from School Administrator

Printed Name of Administrator

Contact Phone Number

Date

The completed form may be faxed to Ivy Tech - Columbus at (812) 372-0311 or given to the student to return to Ivy Tech.